

King Decries Lack of Punishment for Ex-KR

By Wendy Leung

The Cambodia Daily

Monday, January 24, 2005

In separate messages posted on his Web site last week, Retired King Norodom Sihanouk lamented that former Khmer Rouge members have not been dealt with justly.

“[S]peaking always of JUSTICE, it must be noted that numerous ultra-cruel Pol Pot Khmer Rouge Torturers and Killers are already integrated in the Army and the Royal Khmer Administration with high ranks and other advantages”, he wrote in a message posted Friday. “And it is not and will be no question to send them ‘to see’ the famous Khmer-UN Tribunal”.