

World Briefing: Europe

July 8, 2003

BOSNIA: KARADZIC ACCOUNTS FROZEN Paddy Ashdown, who oversees political and economic policy in Bosnia, froze the bank accounts of the family of Radovan Karadzic, the Serbian fugitive who has been indicted by the United Nations tribunal in The Hague on genocide charges connected with the 1992-95 war. Mr. Ashdown did not say how much money was involved. (Reuters)